'Becoming a Habit,' says Lord Mayor in Welcome

"This is becoming a habit," said the Lord Mayor, Cr. F. Selleck, in welcoming the Rapid Soccer team at a civic reception at Melbourne Town Hall on Tuesday.

He was referring to the welcoming of visiting Soccer teams.

"Only a fortnight ago we welcomed the South China team, and I believe there will be another visiting team here later in the season. I imagine we will welcome them, too," he said.

"We realise that Soccer is the type of football to be played at the Olympic Games next year." He said that he had discussed it with the Austrian Manager, Mr. Gold, and felt it was a pity that some of the Austrians could not stay here, return to amateurism, and be enrolled in the Australian side.

"I never was very clear on the definitions of professionals and amateurs, but I am told it cannot be done," he said with a smile.

Cr. Selleck said he visited Vienna two years ago and thoroughly enjoyed his fortnight's stay. He hoped that the Austrians enjoyed their visit to Melbourne as much.

He was pleased to welcome any overseas team here if it was to improve the standard of Australian sport, and he was sure that the Rapid team would do that.

Camilleri to the Rescue

As Johnson, Polonia's centre-forward, comes in, George Cross 'keeper Camilleri makes to gather the ball in the main match at the Showgrounds last Saturday. Other attacker is inside-forward Schipperheyn.

Two Englishmen Started It

Austria is now one of the world's leading Soccer nations, and Vienna the home of some of the world's strongest clubs.

But did you know that Soccer was introduced to that city only 60 years ago, and by two Englishmen?

These two men, Mr. Stone and Mr. Blyth, opened a men's wear store in Kaernisnerstrasse, the Collins Street of Vienna, and the firm still exists. It was in 1895 that they founded the first Vienna Cricket and Football Club, with headquarters at the shop.

This story was told by Mr. Ernst Redlich, who is travelling with the Viennese side. He was a member of the club until 1938, the year in which it finally closed.

"I was a member for many years and played in the club's teams, but I never saw cricket until I came to Australia several years ago," said Mr. Redlich.

FIXTURES.

In addition to the 4th round of the Dockerty Cup, to be played on August 6, the following postponed league matches have been arranged:

Second Division: Sunshine City v. Preston.

Third Division: Hallonia v. Wilhamstown.

ALTERATION TO FIXTURES.

All matches postponed on 18th July, 1966, due to the visit of South China, will now be played on Saturday, 27th August. All clubs are required to make the necessary arrangements.

METROPOLITAN SOUTH.

All clubs please note that the address of the Port Melbourne S.C. is now 264 Russell Street, Melbourne, and the telephone number is FB 2854.

ON RECORD.

On Monday, July 25, Mr. Gold, Manager of the Austria-Rapid team, was presented with a St. Kilda football guernsey and badge by the secretary of the St. Kilda Football Club.

We wish to thank the St. Kilda Club for this pleasant and unsolicited gesture.

Mr. Gold Stopped the Rumours

Ugly rumours about the "plight" of the Austrian team in Australia made big headlines in the European newspapers.

The big story, which followed the misunderstanding about the payments after the second Test, declared that the Austrian team was stranded in Australia without money, and suggested that assistance be sent to them by the Austrian Government.

The manager of the Austrian team, Mr. Max Gold, quickly ended such rumours by cabling to Vienna that there was no trouble here, and that everything, including the financial standing, was well with the team.

One Game in L.V. Last Week

Only one game was played in the Latrobe Valley last week and the postponed league game between Morwell and Moe United. The result was a goalless draw.

Only one more postponed league game remains to be played, that between Moe United and Morwell Rangers. Until that has been played, no final league tables can be made up.

FRANK MacIVER

He congratulated the Austrians on at last gaining "official" peace in their country, after 10 years of post-war indecision.

There was only one request that he wished to make. That was that before leaving Melbourne, members of the visiting team be taken around the Olympic Games sites to see for themselves how Melbourne was preparing itself. They could then carry back to Austria eye-witness proof that the Games were going to be a great success.

The Minister for Housing, Mr. Horace Petty, also added that he

Tickets Only for Fifth Test?

The date for the fifth Test against Rapid has been set down as August 20, and rumour has it that the Australian Association will make the match an all-ticket affair. They must expect the demand to be the greatest ever for Soccer in Australia. Only a pity that the Test will be played in Sydney.

Coburg Wins, But Honours to Dutch

Coburg's reserve team won last Saturday's game against Wilhelmina, who turned out with only nine men.

The courage and determination of those nine made the game far from one-sided. Coburg had to fight for every goal, as the Dutch keeper made some grand saves, and was well applauded by the spectators.

Coburg's forwards were very rugged, but the backs soon settled down early and played a sound game. The final score was Coburg 6, Wilhelmina 3.

—R. BURNETT.

hoped that the Austrians would have a good look at the sites.

"When Melbourne turns on the Games next year there will be nothing missing, never fear.

"We may argue amongst ourselves, and fight about what is to be held where, but that is part of our national character, and once we have made our decision we get things done," said Mr. Petty.

The Austrian Consul in Melbourne, Mr. Berger, who translated the speeches of the Lord Mayor and Mr. Petty, then thanked them for their remarks and said that the Austrians were glad to be here.

HERE IS YOUR STATE TEAM

If the State teams offered in response to last week's invitation to name your own side are any indication, the only three players in the present team who have the nearly complete confidence of the public are Sabidussi, Thomas and Wemyss.

But the teams offered can certainly not be taken as a guide—no two of them were the same.

In all, 44 players were named for places in the team. They were from all divisions except Metropolitan, and from a huge variety of teams.

Almost all would-be selectors nominated Sabidussi as a back. Others mentioned for the other rear berth were Pittoni, Jakubowski (quite popular), Guardiani and Jack.

Czauderna was the most popular goalkeeper, but not by much. Blunt was only a vote or two behind, and others mentioned were McArthur, of Box Hill, and Ravagnan.

Twelve men were named for the three half positions. Tom Jack scored poorly, compared with Wemyss, who netted nearly all the right-half votes. Busidoni scored the same as Tom for the centre position, with McCartney of Brighton, only one vote behind them. Others mentioned for the pivot post were Waldeck (Wilhelmina), Wemyss, Waitzer, Stott and Walker (Prahran).

Plekan was a popular choice for left half, easily out-voting others. Harburn did not get a mention.

Apart from Sid Thomas, who, according to arm-chair selectors, seems to be able to play anywhere in the team, Don Hodgson was the most popular forward. Vidovic and Lauchran were both well supported, and Plateo received several votes. Box was only mentioned once.

Next most popular were Jack Wilson, Piercy, Glennie, Beghini and Tannahill, and others mentioned were Senior, Teuben (Wilhelmina), Smith (Moreland), Bottari, Zavattier, Strahan, Johnson, Zakomark (as a forward and half), Rice, Schipperheyn, Moran (Moreland) and Copeland.

Last Wednesday's team, on its percentage of popularity, was: Blunt (30%), Pittoni (20%), Sabidussi (30%), Wemyss (30%), Jack (10%), Harburn (0%), Thomas (30% as a winger), Finlay (0%), Hodgson (50%), Vidovic (30%), Piercy (15%).

The team which, according to popular selection, should represent Victoria, is:

Blunt and Czauderna equal for goal; Jakubowski and Sabidussi as backs; Wemyss, right half; Jack and McCartney, equal for centre; Plekan for left half; Thomas on the right wing; Thomas also most votes as inside right, but runner-up was Lauchran; Hodgson as centre-forward; Vidovic as inside-left, and Plateo on the wing.

Here are some of the selections from prominent people in the Soccer world.

Dr. Charles Walker (committee and former selector): Czauderna, Sabidussi, Jakubowski, Wemyss, McCartney, Plekan, Thomas, Bottari, Hodgson, Vidovic, Plateo.

Stuart Weston (secretary of the V.A.S.F.A.): Blunt, Sabidussi, Jakubowski, Wemyss, Jack, Busidoni, Thomas, Glennie, Vidovic, Wilson, Piercy.

Murray MacLennan (of the Sun): Blunt, Sabidussi, Pittoni, Wemyss, McCartney, Plekan, Thomas, Glennie, Hodgson, Vidovic, Zavattier.

Kevin Lort (coach at Sandringham): McArthur, Sabidussi, Pittoni, Wemyss, Waldeck, Roberts, Beghini, Lauchran, Hodgson, Senior, Teuben.

Ted Loran (secretary Polaris): Czauderna, Sabidussi, Guardiani, Wemyss, Waitzer, Plekan, Thomas, Lauchran, Hodgson, Box, Plateo.

Saved!

McArthur, of Box Hill, just made this one. He dived to a shot from Gottsman, pushed it past the post and landed flat on his face. The camera clicked while he was still in the air, and the ball only just past the post.

Where is the "Pipe-Major?"

Where is Mr. Jim Barrett—"Pipe major"—who has, or had, an association with the Yallourn Soccer Club? Yallourn certainly don't know, and have forwarded the letter to "Soccer News," in the hope that we can help trace him.

And what would a pipe major be doing in a Soccer club? For this was the address on the letter:

It was posted in Melbourne on the afternoon of June 15. Can anyone help us find Mr. Barrett?

'I.A.M.A. - Geelong has Bright Future,' Says Mrs. Borsari

Although a four-week suspension had cost the club eight points and a chance of first division promotion this season, there was no reason why I.A.M.A.-Geelong should not soon climb to a leading place in State Soccer, said the club's newly-elected President, Mrs. Nino Borsari, this week.

Mrs. Borsari, the only woman club president in Victoria, was quoted by the "Geelong Advertiser," in an interview in its "New Australian" column.

"It might be a bit unusual," said Mrs. Borsari, "to find a woman in charge of a Soccer club," says the "Advertiser." "The reason, however, was that her husband (who at present is in Europe) and herself had had extensive experience in Soccer affairs with the Juventus Club in Melbourne, and for this reason were considered qualified by I.A.M.A.-Geelong circles to lead the club out of its present difficult situation."

Wide Following

The club not only had the backing of the entire Italian community in Geelong, but also included a number of gifted players, and "there was no reason why it should not make the first division in the near future."

Concludes the "Advertiser":—"Among the spectators (at a club game last Saturday) most were migrants, but there was also a sprinkling of Australians, who appeared to enjoy themselves—most nationalities were represented, showing that Soccer appears to be a means of promoting international understanding."

MUSIC WHILE YOU WARM UP

Austrian soccer experts discovered a new "secret weapon" that they hope will produce more victories—massage with music. Officials of "Vienna Athletic Club," a team of the second division, laid down that half an hour before the start of the game operette melodies, marches and other "gay songs" should be played during the massage of the players.

The club won the game with 4-0.

HE GOT THE BOOT

The punishment of Anoul, the well known player of the Belgium national team, is ended. He was suspended for six months because he allowed soccer boots to be sold under his name.

"Soccer News" asks

Mr. GOLD'S VIEWS ON SOCCER IN AUSTRALIA

The first thing required of a good Soccer player is that he be a good athlete, said Mr. Max Gold, Manager of the Rapid team, in Melbourne this week.

"Here in Australia you have such people. Nearly everyone is an athlete, to a certain extent, and many of them are good ones. It is a country where there is every opportunity for sport—every kind of sport, not only Soccer," he said.

So he does not consider it would take very long for Australia to become a power in the Soccer world, as it has become a power in other sporting worlds, after the correct training and experience was given to the players here.

"Unfortunately, there are a number of organisations here in Australia which will not allow Soccer to get a good hold, as it would endanger their existence as business enterprises," he said.

It was not only in Victoria that Soccer had to contend with the opposition of other sporting organisations in more powerful positions, he said. It was the same in New South Wales, although not as bad.

Grounds First

In Mr. Gold's opinion, the chicken of good Soccer comes before the egg of big gates.

"The first thing you need to get good players here in Australia is first-class grounds to play on."

He said that every penny which the Soccer Associations throughout the country gathered should be spent on getting first-class grounds.

"You cannot expect a player to be first class unless he has first-class tools, and the ground is the most important of them."

More Coaches

He was full of praise for Victorin's initiative in bringing Len Young to Melbourne as an official coach, but he did not believe it had gone far enough.

"One man can do so little, and in so short a time it is surprising that there is any evidence of his work as yet," he said.

"If you want the standard to improve, you should get five or six really good men, from England, Scotland, Austria and other European countries. Let them do their coaching everywhere, not only in Melbourne, so that there will be good competition from teams in other parts of Victoria. That is the way to get good competitions, good players, and good crowds," he said.

No Change

What are Australia's chances of fielding a team worthy of the Olympic Games by November next year?—"None."

"The time is too short. Even if your expert was given a team of the best men to start training right away, and they kept at it every week from now until the Games, they would not be up to the standard of many of the visiting sides."

Mr. Gold said the reason was that the national and State players in Australia now were all too old.

"If you really want to get good players, you must start with the boys."

... These were some of his comments

Too Old

"It is too difficult for a coach to train a team of old men, established in their style of play, and in many personal faults. The only way to do it is to get the boys when they first enter the game, at 8, 9 or 10 years old, and start working on them then."

At that rate it took about eight years to build up a really good team from nothing, with a good coach. The way Australia is trying it at present, it will always have plenty of players, but never any worthy of international soccer.

Too Rough

About the Soccer he had seen in Australia, Mr. Gold said on Tuesday that the best play he had seen had been from the Queensland team: they tried to play Soccer properly, although they were not as skilled individually as the New South Wales team. Most of the teams Rapid had played before going to Queensland were too rough to be good players, he said.

Solid charging could never be called unfair or even rough, and the sliding tackle was a thing to be closely watched by the referee, who was the sole judge as to whether it was dangerous or not, he said.

It Will Grow

If the Soccer authorities in Australia show initiative, and were prepared to lay out money to improve the standard of the game, the young players he had seen here were quite good enough to raise the game in the space of the next five or six years to a position where it would seriously challenge the major sport of the country.

"It is the most popular game elsewhere, why not also in Australia?"

"Soccer is a game of brains as well as fitness. One has to work with the head both inside and outside, and translate the thoughts into action with the feet. It cannot be done without plenty of training," said Mr. Gold.

To See Rules

Mr. Gold said he had never seen a game of Australian Rules, although he had seen Rugby played. He thought it possible that he would be back in Melbourne for a few days after the team left for Austria, and he hoped that he would see a game in those few days.

"I do not think that I will either understand it or appreciate it; but I would still like to see it," he said.

Bob Zablocki, Polonia's star centre-half, returned to Soccer this week after recuperating from a knee operation.

Bob has been out since before the beginning of the season with cartilage trouble. He has had only one training run with his own club boys, and was found to be firm enough.

On Friday morning he was out with the Austrians for a real test.

He should be back on the field with his club before the end of the season.

from Spotter

What price a team of Soccer players equipped with hands like Venus de Milo?

A lot of fans are keen to see a match between Rapid and South China. Both of these teams have been toying with the local opposition, and a game between them would be a "natural" in the eyes of all Soccer followers, and would give us some idea of the virtues of the code.

It is a matter of finance that prevents this match from taking place. The Australian Association would want a third share, and this would not suit the Austrians.

If the A.S.F.A. sacrificed a bit of revenue and put this game on, it would strike a real propaganda blow for Soccer.

Talking of this Rapid team, I have been fortunate enough to see them in action, and I am not of the opinion that they are as good a team as we have had visit us in the past.

Soccer here has not improved, and I believe that if the Chinese team ever gets the chance to play them, they will give them something for their corner.

Rapid are a sensational team, both on and off the field. Last Saturday they nearly walked off the field, after heatedly arguing with the referee and players of the Australian team.

They refused to defend a penalty awarded against them, and which Bunny Nunn tapped into an empty goal.

In Melbourne they walked out of an hotel because of the lack of radiators. What will happen next? Most of us are wondering.

There was plenty of excitement at the Cabaret Maas on Sunday night. The Austrian Soccer team, Rapid, was being entertained at a dinner by the proprietors, Mr. and Mrs. Maas.

Among those present were the Austrian Consul, the Chairman of the Council, Mr. W. R. Thomas; Alec Kerr, Kurt Deffris, John Olliphant, Des Hamilton, Doctor Walker and Charles Dodd.

Let's have a little less of this referee bairing after a match. They are not perfect, we must all agree. Nor are they half the things they are called.

It is very poor taste to abuse a man when you know that he can't turn around and hit you between the eyes, as is so often deserved.

Hanappi Elects Not to Return

Although it was reported earlier in the week that four of the Rapid team would return to Europe to take part in a game Europe v. England, in London on August 14, that is now no longer true.

Austrian manager, Mr. Max Gold, cabled back that the taking of four players would as good as end the present tour, and the selection was reduced to one — Hanappi.

Bad news for Australians, who, nevertheless, congratulate him on his renowned selection, is that he will probably not go. The decision was left to him, and he has almost made up his mind.

He has decided not to go. He would rather stay with his teammates than travel thousands of miles for one game, no matter how great an honour it would be.

Visitors Paid Own Bill In Hotel Switch

Don't misunderstand the Viennese boys in their change of hotel. When they moved to the Chevron Hotel from the one formerly arranged, they footed their own bill.

This was made quite clear by the Chairman of the Soccer Council, Mr. W. R. Thomas, last week, when asked if the change of hotels added to the bill of the Australian or Victorian Soccer Associations.

Mr. Thomas explained that the only charges on local Soccer authorities for the Austrian tour are travelling. The Australian association has paid for the air fares from Austria to Australia and back, and for all air travel within Australia.

After those payments are taken out, the "gate," less the cost of the day's expenses, is divided between the Australian association and the visitors, the Austrians getting 55 per cent.
